Roman Catholic, or simply "Roman", as it is often called, was founded by Thomas E. Cahill, a 19th-century Philadelphia merchant. He saw the need to create a school that offered a free Catholic education for boys, past their grammar school years. The Montgomery County Intermediate Unit provides a vast array of effective and efficient educational services that meet the educational and social service needs of Montgomery County's 22 public school districts, more than 170 non public schools, four vocational-technical schools and the Pennsylvania Department of Education. Arcadia University was founded in Beaver, Pennsylvania in 1853 as Beaver Female Seminary. By 1872, it had attained collegiate status, under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was named Beaver College. Select A Highlands Certified Consultant.
