Here's how "Hacksaw Ridge," director Mel Gibson's new movie about Desmond Doss, stacks up against the true story of the World War II hero. A Long Walk to Water begins as two stories, told in alternating sections, about a girl in Sudan in 2008 and a boy in Sudan in 1985. The girl, Nya, is fetching water from a pond that is two hours' walk from her home: she makes two trips to the pond every day. (Warning: Some Spoilers to Follow) The upcoming war movie starring Andrew Garfield tells the intriguing story of WWII hero Desmond Doss, who was the first conscientious objector to win a congressional medal of honor. Philadelphia is a 1993 American drama film and one of the first mainstream Hollywood films to acknowledge HIV/AIDS, homosexuality, and homophobia., Compelled Based On A True Story.
