Digital distribution (also referred to as content delivery, online distribution, or electronic software distribution (ESD), among others) is the delivery or distribution of digital media content such as audio, video, software and video games. The term is generally used to describe distribution over an online delivery medium, such as the ...Smart digital and physical distribution and marketing services for music and video artists and labels worldwide. Before TuneCore, artists needed a label to get their music sold online. In 2006, we changed the game by partnering with digital stores to allow any musician to sell their songs worldwide while keeping 100% of their sales revenue. Music Key offered ad-free playback of music videos hosted by YouTube, as well as background and offline playback of music videos on mobile devices from within the YouTube app., Digital Music Distribution.
