Teaching Tolerance provides free resources to educators—teachers, administrators, counselors and other practitioners—who work with children from kindergarten through high school. Educators use our materials to supplement the curriculum, to inform their practices, and to create civil and inclusive school communities where children are ...The television is a killer slaying souls across the face of the earth. America has been tempted and paralyzed with charms and sins. Television is a chief cauldron of temptation putting bad ideas in people's minds. The notion of servant leadership has been en vogue in recent decades, fueled in part by Robert Greenleaf publishing his classic text in 1977. Given our cultural fascination with leadership, and our desire to imbue the concept of leadership with as many positive qualities as possible (see, "Leader: the ideal human being?"), it's not surprising ... Since the U.S. government moved to an all-volunteer military in the 1970s the Army has advertized itself to potential recruits in various ways. In the 1980s the slogan was "Be all that you can be. Join the U.S. Army" or "It's a great place to start." The Army provided training that would, Knowing Yourself Gaining Understanding And Promoting Your Potential For Greatness..
