If you only have a little time in Las Vegas, maximizing the visit to see the best spots in the city should be the top priority. As Sin City hotels and resorts are like small cities, it's easy to get overwhelmed by the options so choose your itinerary carefully when in a time crunch on the Las Vegas strip. The 2.5-mile-long central section of Las Vegas Boulevard, which runs through the city from northeast to southwest, known as the Strip, is lined with huge entertainment palaces, many built with a defining theme and home to performance venues, luxury hotel rooms, and fine dining.
