This item: Life Story Work with Children Who are Fostered or Adopted: Creative Ideas and Activities by Katie Wrench and Lesley Naylor Paperback £12.99 In stock. Sent from and sold by Amazon. Life story work is one of the key therapeutic approaches to working with adopted or fostered children. While it sounds simple, there is much more to this work than producing photo albums or memory boxes for children. Why a child was adopted needs to be handled honestly in a child friendly way. The Child Permanency Reports (CPR formerly Form E) and social work records are essential to write this section. Tell the story as is read in the file as simply and non emotively as you can. You can ask to see the records concerning your child as this section needs to provide real examples of what led to your child ...Life story work is a social work intervention with children and adults designed to recognise their past, present, and future. It is prominently used with children who will be adopted, and older adults as part of reminiscence therapies ., Life Story Work With Children Who Are Fostered Or Adopted.
