A historic seaport and fishing haven filled with lobster shacks, lighthouses, and so much more. Not only is this area historic, it is also quite picturesque. Not only is this area historic, it is also quite picturesque. Lobsters, Lighthouses and So Much More New England charm and beauty call me back every year. by Anne Harmon Hogan Lobsters and Lighthouses ... One of those places you instantly feel like a local, New England's scenery, old-world villages, and seaside communities are as welcoming and familiar as you can get, making for leisurely exploration. Speaking of lobster, it doesn't get much more quintessential Maine than Harraseeket Lunch and Lobster, a wonderful lobster shack located in South Freeport. Enjoy lobsters, clams, lobster rolls and homemade pie while boats bob at the marina's surrounding it in South Freeport Harbor., Lobsters, Lighthouses And So Much More.
