The following is a list of the books currently held by Minnesota Quilters, Inc. Books are available for checkout during any member meeting from the red library carts. The Museum of Appalachia is a living history museum — a pioneer mountain farm-village that lends voice to the people of Southern Appalachia through the artifacts and stories they left behind. To be frank, we expected the Museum of Appalachia to be dull. Another "rural life" museum; quilts and baskets and millstones. Yawn. The Museum is a satisfying surprise -- a credit to its creator, John Rice Irwin, who understands that a historical attraction needs exhibits with a little pizzazz. This National Historic Landmark in Indiana represents Indiana's history from the Native American era to its early European settlers and motor racing., People Their Quilts John Irwin.
