

Download Spiders And Their Webs Full Story

This is the story of how spiders got a bad reputation. Relayed as a bedtime story by GRAMPS, a hard-of-hearing, rickety old, FUNNEL WEB spider, told to his grandson, JAY COB, the "cutest spider ever"...It turns out spiders do, indeed, have a method for determining the position of the next day's web, and (alas!) it has very little to do with polite spiders trying to keep their webbing (literally ...But by positioning their webs directly above rivers, Darwin's bark spiders can capture dozens of dragonflies, mayflies and other energy-rich insects that live over the water. A normal web on the left and a web made by a spider on chloral hydrate (sleeping pills) The spiders fed chloral hydrate gave up on their webs even faster than the ones who'd had a little cannabis., Spiders And Their Webs Full Story.
