INTRODUCTION: From the Second Century to our present age, many people have found the biblical doctrine of the Trinity hard to understand. The doctrine of the Trinity recognizes that God is one God, co-existing in three distinct Persons of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. by David J. Stewart | May 2007 | Updated June 2018. Colossians 2:9, "For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily." Skeptics of the Word of God often like to point out that the word "Trinity" is not found in the Scriptures; however, the Word "Godhead" most certainly is. The term employed to signify the central doctrine of the Christian religion, the truth that in the unity of the Godhead there are three persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, these three persons being truly distinct one from another. I believe that Christ is infinite and that in Him is life, original, unborrowed and underived. "He that hath the Son hath life" (1 John 5:12)., Understanding The Godhead Mystery.
